

Pete Pattison

60 year old Shyari's hands are bound in cloth in an attempt to protect them against the bricks she has to shift for twelve hours a day.

Could YOU handle...

being forced to work for little or no pay

Pete Pattison

'Indra' was trafficked from Sri Lanka to the UK to work in domestic service. Her employer took her passport so she was unable to leave and refused to pay her anything for her work.

under the threat or use of violence

Coalition of Immokalee Workers

Many migrant workers are trafficked to their country of work and forced to harvest crops on farms.

and denied your basic dignity?

Find out how you can join the fight for freedom at:

www.antislavery.org

Anti-Slavery International The Stableyard Broomgrove Road London SW9 9TL Tel: +44 (0)20 7501 8920 Fax: +44 (0)20 7738 4110 Email: info@antislavery.org

registered charity no: 1049160

Anti-Slavery International is the only charity in the United Kingdom working exclusively against slavery and related abuses, and is the leading organisation in this field.

With your help we work at local, national and international levels to eliminate the systems of slavery around the world. By working with local partners we investigate and report on slavery and promote action to eliminate this abuse.